Jewish people lost their temple (AD 70)

- In New Testament times, there were three main groups: Sadducees, Pharisees and Zealots.
- Sadducees were the priests. But they could no longer do sacrifices without a temple, so they lost control.
- Zealots died at Masada, Herod's Fortress, in AD 73 with the mass suicide of 956 people.
- So after the temple was destroyed, the Rabbis (Pharisees) became the leaders. This is why Judaism is called Rabbinic Judaism.
- Focus became keeping the law, but without sacrifices.

Jewish people lost their land

- Simon bar Kokhba led a revolt against the Romans (132–136 AD).
- Three rabbis declared him to be messiah.
- In response, Roman Emperor Hadrian leveled Jerusalem in AD136.
- Romans rebuilt the city, changing Jerusalem's name to Aelia Capitolina, dedicated to god Jupiter.

Diaspora & Persecutions

- Many Jews fled from Jerusalem to Persia (Babylon).

They stayed scattered for a long time and were persecuted (even by Christians!)

- Over time, Jewish groups emerged in Europe (16th/17th centuries)
 - Sephardic Jews – Spanish roots / Islamic Arab
 - Ashkenazic Jews – German roots; spoke Yiddish (German with Hebrew characters)

Why do Jewish people reject Jesus?

You might hear...

- “The true Messiah will gather Jewish exiles to their homeland, rebuild the Temple, and bring in an age of peace.”
 - “But Jesus lived while the Temple was standing.”
 - “Jesus was killed.”
 - “Jesus never reigned as king.”
 - “Jesus caused the Temple to be destroyed and the Jewish people to be scattered.”
- “It’s idolatry to worship a person.”

How could we respond?

Do all Jewish people reject Jesus?

Answer: No!

There are about 350,000 Jewish people worldwide today who do believe in Jesus. They are called Messianic Jews.

Peter, James, John, Paul, etc., were all Jewish. Christianity started as a Jewish sect. Acts 24:5 says, “For we have found this man a plague, one who stirs up riots among all the Jews throughout the world and is a ringleader of the sect of the Nazarenes.”

Some great Messianic Jewish resources are Jews for Jesus (www.jewsforjesus.org) and Arnold Fruchtenbaum (www.ariel.org).

How do Jewish people think they're forgiven without a temple?

How do Jewish people think they're forgiven today if there's no temple and no animal sacrifices?

Answer: they don't think sacrifices required.

- God took away the temple, so they think they're not obligated. They also think their repentance is what's important. Even if they had a temple, they still believe repentance is what's most important.

Three main branches of Judaism today

	Orthodox (6%)	Reform (38%)	Conservative (35%)
Description	Before 18th century.	Modernized Judaism after 18th century Enlightenment.	Between Orthodox and Reform.
Scripture	High view of Hebrew Bible and oral law.	Low view of Hebrew Bible. Rejects miracles. Not historically or scientifically accurate. Still valuable for morality.	Hebrew Bible and law are mix of God's Word and man's word.
God	Belief in a personal God.	Don't even have to believe in God.	Non-dogmatic and flexible. God is impersonal and unknowable.
Mankind	People are born morally neutral with both good and evil inclination	People are basically good. Can improve through education and evolution.	Usually like Reform view.
Salvation	Repentance, prayer and obedience to the Law are required.	People should better themselves to advance society.	Usually like Reform view.
Messiah	Coming messiah will restore kingdom and rule over entire earth.	Mankind is progressing toward a Utopian age	Usually like Reform view.
Life after death	Physical resurrection followed by judgment.	No concept of life after death.	Usually like Reform view.

Evangelism Tips

- Jewish people are not as concerned about “going to heaven” or being “saved.” Don’t be surprised if that type of message does not make sense to them. As Christians, we rightly see ourselves as sinners, cut off from God, and who need to believe in Jesus to save us from our sins in order to get to heaven. But most Jewish people feel they are already in a good relationship with God (as God’s chosen people). Most are concerned with “how to live in the here and now” (Intl. Students, 8). They believe they are to demonstrate to the rest of the world how to live righteously on earth.
- Jewish people are not as concerned about doctrine. “Judaism, in all its branches, is a religion of deed, not creed” (Intl. Students, 2).
- Jewish people reject that people are born sinners. Judaism rejects the idea of original sin (that people are born with a sin-nature). They see a “sinner” as somebody who is extremely immoral and evil. Try to show how all people are sinners from the Old Testament. Some examples:
 - 1 Kings 8:46 – (Solomon praying) “If they sin against you—for there is no one who does not sin—and you are angry with them and give them to an enemy...”
 - Psalm 51 – the great king, David, confesses his own sin.

Evangelism Tips

- Ask questions that go into conversation. A suggested opening could be: “As a Christian, I’m discovering that our faith is basically Jewish. I guess you could say that I believe in the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. Why do you suppose it’s mostly Gentiles who believe in Him even though Christianity is basically Jewish?” (Compact Guide, 134)
- Avoid Christian jargon like “the precious blood of Christ,” “saved,” and “born-again.” These do not carry meaning for secular or Jewish people. (Compact Guide, 132)
- Try not to offend with anti-Semitic phrases. Instead of saying “you Jews” or “a Jew” say “the Jewish people” or “a Jewish man.” (Compact Guide, 132)
- Be patient. Realize that as a Christian you likely know the Old Testament better than a Jewish friend. You might be showing them Scriptures they are not familiar with. (Compact Guide, 139)

Show Old Testament Imagery Points to Christ

Luke 24:27 – “And beginning at Moses and all the Prophets, He (Jesus) expounded to them in all the Scriptures the things concerning Himself.”

- Passover lamb. Blood put on doorframe of every house so the angel of death would pass over and spare that house (Ex.12:7). This foreshadows need to be covered by blood of Christ to be spared of God’s wrath (Rom. 5:9).
- Bronze snake. People sinned, and God sent snakes. When people cried out to Lord, he replied, “Make a fiery serpent and set it on a pole, and everyone who is bitten, when he sees it, shall live.” (Num. 21:8). This foreshadows salvation by looking to Jesus lifted up on the cross (John 3:14).
- Abraham’s sacrifice. God tested Abraham’s obedience by asking him to sacrifice his only son Isaac whom he greatly loved (Gen. 22:1-18). This foreshadowed God sacrificing his only son (John 3:16).
- Jonah. Jonah was swallowed by a large fish (Jonah 1:17) for three days. This points to Jesus being buried for three days (Matt. 12:40; Luke 11:30).
- Joseph. He was rejected by own brothers, sold into slavery, but then becomes second to Pharaoh. When his brothers encounter famine, Joseph reveals himself to his brothers and delivers them from famine. Points to how Jesus would be rejected by his own people, but this would result in their salvation.
- Yearly feasts. Elements of Messiah found throughout the feasts that the Jewish people celebrate every year (Leviticus 23). Passover points to need for each family to be covered by blood of lamb; Unleavened Bread points to removal of sin; Firstfruits points to Jesus being resurrected first; Pentecost points to Holy Spirit being poured out; Trumpets speaks to Israel’s gathering to Messiah in future; Atonement speaks to Israel’s acceptance of Messiah in future; Tabernacles points to the future millennial kingdom.
- Tabernacle. Each element represents something. For example, there was one door into the camp (John 14:6). The brazen altar points to the need for a sacrifice to enter God’s presence (John 1:29). The bronze laver points to need for being cleansed before going into God’s presence (John 13:8). The table of showbread and lampstand point to the light and bread a person has in the presence of God (Jesus claimed to be both light and bread of world in John 8:12; 6:35). Veil of curtain leading into holy of holies was torn at Jesus death. We have an eternal high priest who offered a single blood sacrifice (his own perfect blood), and he sat down because there’s no more need for sacrifice (Heb. 10:11-14). Therefore, we now have boldness to enter God’s presence (Heb. 10:19).
- Burnt offerings. Worshipper would bring sacrifice, lay hands on its head, sin transferred to animal. Speaks to substitutionary sacrifice of Christ (John 1:29).
